New Special Education Regulations and Updates

Presented by:

Naomi Brickel, Director, Hudson Valley Special Education Parent Center
Laurie Levine, Regional Special Educational Training Specialist

This session will provide an overview of recent changes in policy enacted by the NYSED Board of Regents, as well as important proposals currently being considered. It is a must for parents and professionals of students with disabilities in middle and high school. Administrators and SEPTA (or other special education parent leadership) are encouraged to attend together.
