

The Lower Hudson Special Education Task Force is proud to present

Sex Education and Students with Disabilities

Learning about the birds and the bees is necessary for all students!

Join the Lower Hudson Special Education Taskforce for a discussion about an important subject that does not get enough attention – sex education and students with disabilities. Claire Volain from Planned Parenthood Hudson Peconic will explain the importance of educating students with disabilities about comprehensive sex education along with techniques and subjects that both parents and schools should be covering with their students.

Date: Wednesday, May 24, 2017

Time: 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Location: The Mahopac Library, 668 Route Six Mahopac, NY 10541

Moderated by: Anastasia L. Holoboff, Esq., Staff Attorney, Disability Rights NY and Nanette Saturn, Educational Advocate, Barger & Gaines
